

Statement of Average Gross Compensation of Active Distributors 2008

While many of our Independent Distributors join Polaris Media Group simply to enjoy our products, others want to share their results and take advantage of the many income benefits our income opportunity provides. With Polaris Media Group, you can work part-time and earn a supplemental income or focus solely on your distributorship to increase your financial potential. Distributors have the potential to earn profits by selling Polaris Media Group products at retail. It's completely up to the individual how much he or she wants to achieve. If a Distributor wants to increase his or her involvement in the business and enjoy the possibility of higher levels of income, he or she may bring others in the business and develop an organization.
